

ARCARSENAL

(Bass Cadet Records / Finale Sessions / UQ - DE)

Since relocating to Berlin at the turn of the decade, French-natives Arcarsenal have gone on to position themselves as proponents of music as warm as their personalities. Using their shared studio as a base from which they craft their productions, the analogue set-up and penchant for improvisation and jams has led to enthralling releases on mighty Underground Quality, aside their own Bass Cadet Records imprint.

Proprietors of the store that bears the same name, these established DJ's have been busy playing to parties across their adopted home town, Paris and the UK capital – sharing their love for the disco, house and techno that inspires them, whilst maintaining their own delectable take on the cherished sounds, either deep or upbeat, but always on the soul key.

After inaugurating their label in 2012, a detour by london's This Is Not Happening in 2013, they released a statement record, critically and publicly acclaimed, on Finest Hour in 2014. The EP has gained support of key players as Ben UFO, Nick Höppner or Philipp Sherburne and artists like Fred P, AYBEE, Margaret Dygas or Eduardo De La Calle. Earlier this year Arcarsenal took part to the latest chapter of Underground Quality's compilation series Unity Kolabo and released a track on young berliner label Funhaus Records. The future is already busy for them with a slew of releases lined in for esteemed labels. Dubby essays, ambient works and other deep techno burners will help opening the sound spectrum of the duo, always in research for new ideas and tries.
